

Within only his first few years as a performer, Chris has a reputation that quickly propelled him to amongst the top artist scene. Chris' wonderful vocal talent as a young Elvis earned him admiration and praise from fans and peers. His Buddy Holly tribute, Chris has gained the honor of versatile, multi-talented performer.

It all began for Chris when he entered The People's Choice 2001, Michigan ElvisFest and took first place. Since then, he's been the favorite at the Michigan ElvisFest, held annually in Ypsilanti. In many other local and Midwest events, performing in private parties, casinos, and special celebrations throughout the Midwest.

As an Elvis tribute artist, Chris has performed with Elvis

